Defending Our Religious Liberty Oct. 25, 2015

35th Anniversary

Save the Date! November 8 at the 10:30 Mass, we will joyfully celebrate Saint Francis' 35th Anniversary of the dedication & blessing of the church as well as the becoming an independent parish.

There will be a reception prior to the Mass. Watch for more details.

- Do you remember the first time you saw Saint Francis on West Town Street?
- Or walked into the church?
- Do you have a favorite memory of being here? A favorite priest, a certain event?
- Do you remember the 'little white church on the Green on Route 87'?

We are collecting "memories" to mark the 35th anniversary of Saint Francis becoming a parish.

It can be a small or large remembrance.

There are pages at the entrances and the children have been given pages as well, to make a drawing or write something.

Please return the pages by November 1st; there is a folder in the sacristy to place them in.

KRISTALLNACHT OBSERVANCE

10:30-NOON, SUN., NOVEMBER 1

Temple Bnai Israel, 345 Jackson St., Willimantic

On Nov. 9, 1938, Nazi Germany and Austria instigated attacks against Jewish synagogues, businesses and homes. Known as the "Night of Broken Glass," almost 200 synagogues were destroyed, over 8,000 Jewish shops were sacked and looted, and tens of thousands of Jews were removed to concentration camps. It was the beginning of one of the most brutal and destructive chapters in the history of the Jewish people.

Temple Bnai Israel will commemorate Kristallnacht on Sunday, November 1, with a story symbolizing the resilience and redemption of the Jewish people. The program will feature a Torah Scroll rescued from the looting of synagogues in the former Czechoslovakia, how it made its journey to us, and became a part of our Jewish Temple family. With a video, reading from the revered scroll which serves as the Temple's memorial to those who perished in the Holocaust, hands on art, the program is oriented to the participation of children and their families.

This is the 20th anniversary of the Czech Scroll's becoming part of the Temple family. Please join us to "rewelcome" the Czech scroll and to learn its story. We invite everyone in the community to participate. A light brunch plus special treats for children will be served.
