Prayer for our Men and Women in Military Service

O Prince of Peace, we humbly ask for Your protection for all our men and women in military service. Give them unflinching courage to defend with honor, dignity, and devotion the rights of all who are imperiled by injustice and evil. Guard our churches, our homes, our schools, our hospitals, our factories, our buildings and all those within from harm and peril. Protect our land and its peoples from enemies within and without. Grant an early peace with victory founded upon justice. Instill in the hearts and minds of men and women everywhere a firm purpose to live forever in peace and good will toward all. Amen.

APOSTOLATE OF PRAYER — We pray for Msgr. Thaddeus Malanowski, Msgr. Kevin Randall, Rev. Roland Cloutier, Rev. Mark Masnicki, Rev. Richard Sliwinski, Rev. Krzysztof Drybka OSPPE, Msgr. Henry Archambault, Rev. George Richards, Jr., Rev. Jose Rizal DiMapilis OP, Rev. James Thaikootathil, Rev. Richard Ricard, Rev. James Sucholet, Rev. Christopher Feeney, V. Rev. Michael Phillipino.

OGlory to the Blood of Jesus. May Your priests be happy, may they be esteemed a thousand times, privileged to drink of the Fountain of the Savior each day. (Mother Catherine Aurelia, foundress)

Defending Our Religious Liberty Sept. 25, 2016

The Catholic Church invests in the common good. It runs and operates schools, hospitals, universities, charities and social services. Our government and society have long relied on them for help and taken advantage of the vast network that churches and religious institutions provide to aid people in need and to help form good citizens. But, when we are told we've got to stop being who we are, to put aside our beliefs, or plainly go against our conscience in order to be allowed to contribute to the common good, we must speak out. If you haven't done so already, please voice your opposition to the federal health care mandate by calling U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services Sylvia Mathews Burwell at 202-205-5445, and your elected state representatives. Let them know that the mandate is in violation of our First Amendment right to religious freedom.

The 9th Annual Catholic Men's Conference will be held Saturday, October 22 at Goodwin College in East Hartford. To register go to www.ctcatholicmen.org Ticket price is $40, includes box lunch. Tickets for sale on line & at the door Doors open at 8:00am, Vigil Mass at 4:00pm
